The Baby Beast

LERNER PUBLISHING GROUP (ANDERSEN PRESS)

When an egg arrives on his doorstep, Beast doesn't quite know what to do: feed it? Take it for a nice long walk? Drop it? Doctor Yoko tells him he must keep it warm and just wait, but exactly what he's waiting for is a mystery to the Beast. . . Side-splitting humour from award-winning Chris Judge: adults will recognize (some of) Beast's first-time child-care mistakes, while children laugh out loud.

Badger's Perfect Garden

SLEEPING BEAR PRESS

It's springtime and Badger is ready to plant the perfect garden. He has spent months gathering and sorting seeds. It's been a lot of work but it's worth it. His friends Red Squirrel, Dormouse, and Weasel come to help. They weed. They rake. And finally they plant. Afterward, everyone celebrates, and Badger can already imagine the perfect rows of flowers and vegetables. But then a rainstorm comes and washes away the beautiful seeds. Badger's perfect garden is ruined. Or is it? Author Marsha Diane Arnold's gentle story will encourage young readers to think beyond plans and expectations and imagine the wonderful possibilities that may occur when life and nature have other ideas.

LERNER PUBLISHING GROUP (GECKO PRESS)

The big bad wolf is hungry and on today's menu is Grandma, with Red Riding Hood for dessert. But no one is home at Grandma's house, only a nightdress lying on the bed. The wolf puts on the nightie and sets off to see what he can catch dressed as Grandma. Here comes Red Riding Hood. She looks clever, but the wolf knows who is smartest . . . Yet this little girl is not so easily duped. And the wolf finds unexpected hazards in wearing a frilly petticoat in the deep dark woods.

Invisible Lizard in Love

SLEEPING BEAR PRESS

Napoleon, the spiffiest chameleon in the jungle, is a pretty happy guy. And why shouldn't he be? After all, he loves living on his spiffy limb, and blending in with its colourful foliage. And after a few missteps, he now has friends. Mike the monkey and Polly the parrot often come to play. The spiffy limb shakes with fun and it seems like the laughter will never stop. Except it does when Mike meets Mooka and Polly meets her Pedro. His friends have found their perfect mates and Napoleon is now back to being on his own. What will it take for the loneliest chameleon in the jungle to find his own true love?

Nian, The Chinese New Year Dragon

Mei hates springtime. Why? Because it's only in the spring that Nian, a fierce dragon, is able to leave his mountain prison under the sea to terrorize the local village. When the villagers hear the rumblings of Nian's hungry stomach, they know that winter has ended and spring is coming. But this year on the night before the first day of spring, a magical warrior visits Mei in her dreams. He tells Mei that it is her destiny to face and defeat Nian. But she must do it within 15 days or the dragon will be free forever. Author Loh-Hagan gives this retelling of the Nian legend an original twist, while explaining the origins of Chinese New Year traditions.

Sandy Feet! Whose Feet?: Footprints at the Shore

SLEEPING BEAR PRESS

When a family spends a day at the beach, the children investigate various footprints to see what type of creatures live along the shoreline. Rhyming text turns a sandy beach into an outdoor classroom. The tracks and habits of local wildlife, including hopping sandpipers, scuttling crabs, and burrowing turtles, are identified and explained for young ecology detectives. Even Daddy's feet make an appearance! And at day's end, it's time for tired feet to make their way home. PEANUT BUTTER PRESS

Little Hare is eager to learn about the animals that live at the zoo. He explored his backyard in the country in the winter book Wilson, Do You See It? and then again in the summer book Wilson, Do You Hear It? Now it's fall. He's older now and ready for a new adventure. His friend Wilson gives him clues to help him guess the names of the Canadian animals.

The Wolf in Underpants

LERNERCLASSROOM (GRAPHIC UNIVERSE™)

In this graphic novel, a community of forest animals trades scary rumours about a nearby wolf. Some critters have even gone into business selling wolf traps and anti-wolf fences. But when the wolf appears in a pair of striped underpants, everyone rethinks their fears. This is a heartwarming story about understanding differences, told with an oddball sense of humour.

Undercover Ostrich

LERNER PUBLISHING GROUP (CAROLRHODA BOOKS)

Undercover ostriches are everywhere, and they're masters at going undetected. You've probably seen one and just assumed it was another woodpecker or owl. The narrator of this book is on the case, following a single ostrich on his many adventures. Not until the final twist does author and illustrator Joe Kulka let the readers in on the narrator's true motivation: a peanut collection mission involving undercover elephants.

Digger and Daisy (I Am A Reader!)

SLEEPING BEAR PRESS

Meet Digger and Daisy! They are brother and sister. These dogs like to explore their world and see new things. Sometimes they agree with each other. Sometimes they disagree. But no matter the situation, one thing always stays the same—their steadfast love and concern for each other. In playful, simple stories written especially for the K-1 audience, author Judy Young explores the dynamics and nuances of the sibling relationship.

The Boy Who Grew a Forest: The True Story of Jadav Payeng

SLEEPING BEAR PRESS

As a boy, Jadav Payeng was distressed by the destruction deforestation and erosion was causing on his island home in India's Brahmaputra River. So he began planting trees. What began as a small thicket of bamboo, grew over the years into 1,300 acre forest filled with native plants and animals. The Boy Who Grew a Forest tells the inspiring true story of Payeng--and reminds us all of the difference a single person with a big idea can make.

The First Men Who Went to the Moon

SLEEPING BEAR PRESS

In 1961, President John F. Kennedy issued a challenge to the nation: land astronauts on the moon by the end of the decade. The Apollo program was designed by NASA to meet that challenge, and on July 16, 1969, Apollo 11 lifted off from Kennedy Space Center carrying astronauts Neil Armstrong, Michael Collins, and Edwin Aldrin. Apollo 11's prime mission objective: "Perform a manned lunar landing and return." Four days after take-off, the Lunar Module "Eagle," carrying Armstrong and Aldrin, separated from the Command Module "Columbia," and descended to the moon. Armstrong reported back to Houston's Command Center, "The Eagle has landed." America and the world watched in wonder and awe as a new chapter in space exploration opened. Through verse and informational text, author Rhonda Gowler Greene celebrates Apollo 11's historic moon landing.

Miep and the Most Famous Diary: The Woman Who Rescued Anne Frank's Diary

SLEEPING BEAR PRESS

The story of Anne Frank and her diary is one of the world's most important and well-known, but less is known about the woman who sheltered Anne and her family for years and, ultimately, rescued Anne's diary from Nazi clutches. Miep Gies was a woman who rose to bravery when humanity needed it and risked everything for her neighbors. It is because of Miep we know Anne Frank—and now, this is Miep's story.

Lainey thought the most challenging thing she'd experience was the realization that she is a powerful witch, but that was only the beginning. Now part of a magical rebel alliance, Lainey must harness her power before the Master finds her and uses her to obtain all the world's magic. But struggling with the death of her uncle and the betrayal of the boy she loved, Lainey finds that magic, like love, doesn't come easy.

A Matter of Souls

LERNERCLASSROOM (CAROLRHODA LAB™)

From the shores of Africa to the bowels of a transatlantic ship to a voting booth in Mississippi to the jungles of Vietnam, all human connection is a matter of souls. In this stirring collection of short stories, Denise Lewis Patrick considers the souls of black men and women across centuries and continents. In each, she takes the measure of their dignity, describes their dreams, and catalogues their fears. Brutality, beauty, laughter, rage, and love all take their turns in each story, but the final impression is of indomitable, luminous, and connected souls.

Emergent Sight Words-Based Libraries Designed for Tweens

Tween Emergent Reader Libraries

SADDLEBACK EDUCATIONAL PUBLISHING

Accessible Text for Tweens Learning to Read

About Tween Emergent Reader Libraries®

Like the award-winning Teen Emergent Reader Libraries®, known as TERL (see page 58), the Tween Emergent Reader Libraries® will motivate struggling readers to pick up a book, start reading, and keep reading. But this series features topics and genres particularly of interest to upper elementary and middle school students. Planned as a three-box set, with books written at emergent and beginning reader levels, this unique new collection contains the books you have been searching for: high-interest fiction and nonfiction selections in sets that include both literary genres and content-specific themes.

Because these books are designed for ages 10 to 14, the storylines presented are not as mature as the TERL collections but still remain contemporary, relevant, and enticing. The first boxed set, EMERGE, includes 48-page books written at true emergent levels, with full-colour photographs on every page to support comprehension and engage struggling readers. Each levelled box gradually increases in level and word count, allowing students to progress in reading step by step.

Key Product Features:

- Progress monitoring in the form of summative assessments for every book and a progress chart for daily monitoring
- Multiple levels to allow teachers to match students to their independent reading level
- Enticing fiction and nonfiction topics supported by stunning full-colour photos
- Extensive instructional support for every book
- Builds critical reading components: comprehension, vocabulary, and fluency
- Three copies of every book to encourage small group study

Designed Specifically For:

- Upper Elementary and Middle School Students Struggling to Read
- Students with Learning Differences and Special Needs
- English Language Learners and Newcomers

Program Includes:

- Fiction and Nonfiction Books Presented in Literary and Content-Based Genres
- Full-Colour Photographs on Every Page to Support Comprehension
- Diverse Tween Characters
- Comprehensive Teacher's Guide with Lesson Plans and Activities

Teen Emergent Reader Libraries

Fiction and Nonfiction with Built-In Text Supports for Older Developing Readers

About Teen Emergent Reader Libraries®

The Teen Emergent Reader Libraries® have been developed to solve the issue of motivating the most struggling teen readers to pick up a book and start reading. The three libraries are written at the emergent and beginning reader levels. Short, simple sentences along with highlighted “emphasis” words and phrases build confidence while full-colour photos support comprehension.

The books offer mature, teen-centric storylines that entice teens to read. Formatted as 48-to 64-page books, these fiction and nonfiction selections look similar to other teen novels and feature photographs to reflect a contemporary, age-appropriate tone. In addition, each book is supported by a lesson plan, guided reading questions, a reproducible comprehension activity, and a quiz. The books, combined with the instructional support, provide the perfect solution for today’s teacher who has to differentiate instruction to meet the needs of all learners while teaching on-grade-level concepts.

Key Product Features:

- Progress monitoring in the form of summative assessments for every book
- Three levels to help your most struggling readers achieve

Libraries for Developing Readers the Next Step in Fluency

Teen Early Fluency Libraries

Builds Confidence and Helps Students Become Independent Readers

About Teen Early Fluency Libraries®

The Teen Early Fluency Libraries® build on the reading base of the Teen Emergent Reader Libraries® (see page 58). These books introduce readers to longer fiction and bridge the gap between emergent reading and early fluency. By the time older developing readers approach a second-grade reading level, they have a handle on the most basic literacy skills. They are ready to increase their fluency so that text flows and makes more sense. Fluency is closely tied to comprehension.

In these boxed sets, book lengths have been increased so there is more practice for readers who are gaining confidence and building their vocabulary. Instead of photos on every page, the photos appear every few pages in the fiction and every other spread in the nonfiction. Each boxed set increases by half a reading level so that students can continue to make progress step by step.

Key Product Features:

- Progress monitoring in the form of summative assessments for every book
- Three levels so developing readers build fluency and increase confidence
- Mature, engaging content
- Extensive teaching support for every book
- Builds critical reading components: comprehension, vocabulary, and fluency
- Fiction and nonfiction genre sets for literature study
